NORFOLK, VA., May 27.—Society is courting the sunshine and anticipating the pleasures a group of freekles is regarded as a proof that the possessor of those evidences of the kisses of the sun has been having a good time. There is no fear even of the bilstering effects of the reflected heat and light of the rays of the sun from the water which has the double consequence of making the face "as red as a best and as sore as a ball" the double consequence to making the times red so a beet and as sore as a boil." The reason for this is that the boating and yachting parties are fashionable and delightful now. There are a number of boating excursions which may be taken from here on successions which may be taken from here on successions.

now. There are a number of beating excursions which may be taken from here on successive days for a week without exhausting the novelty of the scenes or the delightful sensations which the various veyages offer. They can be taken in a sail boat or in one of the motor yachd which are becoming numerous and handsome here. One of the favorite irips is through the canal to Lake Drummond in the ignal and gloomy Dismal Swamp, where nature is still inher primative grandeur undisturbed by the industries and the indignities of man. There is niways as great diversion in satiling among the vessels, in the harbor, including may of the warships which happen to be at the navy-yard. Society has been having a good time this week, despite the seamt record of the society chronicler. Captain and Mrs. E. L. Hongland gave a delightful inneh party. Tuesday down the Honds, making stops at Hampton, Old Point, Willoughly Beach, and The Beach, and after lunches on board, the party returned home, delighted with the trip.
